

Keeping Your Children Safe on the Internet

The following websites provide valuable information for parents and other concerned adults to protect children from online predators.

NetSmartz411

This very informative website is one you really want to check out. This site is parents' and guardians' premier online resource for answering questions about Internet safety, computers and the Web.

iKeepSafe

The Internet Keep Safe Coalition group teaches basic rules of Internet safety to children and parents, reaching them online and in school. Governors and/or first spouses formed this coalition in partnership with a growing list of crime prevention organizations, law-enforcement agencies, foundations, and corporate sponsors. The iKeepSafe.org website uses an animated icon/mascot named Faux Paw the Techno Cat to teach children the importance of protecting personal information and avoiding inappropriate places on the Internet.

CyberSmart!

The CyberSmart! School Program develops curricula and training programs for professional development designed to help educators empower students to take full advantage of computers and the Internet. The site contains Internet safety information for students, parents, and educators, and includes lesson plans, activity sheets, downloadable posters, and safety tips.

National Center for Missing & Exploited Children

This site provides information on general child safety and Internet safety for children, parents, educators, law enforcement, and the community.

SafeKids

This site contains information for children, parents, teachers, and officials on Internet safety and Internet family resources.
